03 Executive Summary

L&T Technology Services (LTTS) delivered a stable Q2FY26 with solid operational performance, expanding revenues sequentially to ₹29,795 million. EBIT margins came in stable at 13.4%, and net profits improved to ₹3,287 million. Large deal bookings surged to near-USD 300 million, indicating a strong pipeline going forward.

04 Management Commentary

CEO & Managing Director Amit Chadha remarked that despite market shifting and geopolitical uncertainty, the 'Go Deeper to Scale' and multi-segment strategy is bearing fruit. In particular, Sustainability logged double-digit annual growth for two consecutive quarters, while Tech was resilient. The firm has intensified its AI-first delivery model investments across Gen AI, Agentic AI, and Physical AI, and expects improved revenue and EBIT margins in H2 compared to H1 of FY26.

05 Key Deal Wins & Opportunities

During the quarter, LTTS secured key projects including a $100 million multi-year sustainability program with a US-based semiconductor equipment manufacturer and a ~$60 million multi-year telecom software contract in the US. Momentum also built up in Mobility and energy segments, helping bolster the firm's medium-term trajectory.
